Sunday was one of the pivotal days in the union evangel'stic campaign, what we might become that makes marking the return of Dr. Stoug to resume conduct of the meetings after his bereavement in the loss of his son. and the two meetings conducted at the armory were of pronounced power and outreach. In the afternoon at the ar-mory Dr. Stough addressed a meet-ing for men only, at which there was an attendance of about 500, and in the evening the building was packed to its capacity with a crowd that numbered about 2,509.

The afternoon service opened with the song service, inspiringly led by Mr. Spooner, and prayer was offered by Rev. G. H. Ewing. A quartette number, Abide With Me, was finely sung by Arthur L. Herring, Charles R. Carlyle, William A Lund and A. R. Parker.

Rev. Mr. Stough's address of the afternoon was upon the topic, Chaining the Giant, from the text Judges xvi:21. "And they brought him down to Gaza," in which he related the tragic story of the death of Samson as that of a man of the greatest possibilities brought to ruin by the same temptations that are overthrowing men today, and the preacher presented the acceptance of Jesus Christ as a personal Saviours as the only sure escape and safety.

Big Evening Meeting.

Christ died on Calvary that he migh take away that which kept the heart of God from his children, and that "green hill far away" was the place where God proved that he too believed in men, and as long as that cross stands on Calvary I shall not despair for the wors man. If God so believed and loved then the ain of sins is to turn away from love like that. And when you turn away you cut yourself loose from turn away you cut yourself loose from all that God has to offer you. But God hasn't given you up yet. Will you take him tonight?

May Continue Campaign.

The union evangelistic campaign with Dr. Stough as leader, is to con-tinue here until Thursday at least, and perhaps longer, if Dr. Stough can be released from an engagement to do evangelistic work at Ashland, Wis. The Norwich committee is endeavoring to make arrangements to have him continue here, in which case the services will be held in the Central Baptist church.

Sunday morning Mr. Herring sang two selections at the Greeneville Con-gregational church, My Redeemer and My Lord, from Dudley Buck's Golden Legend, and The Holy City. He was w. Ols and Haron Carpenter denging the discourse of the big gathering with a cornet trio which was finely played.

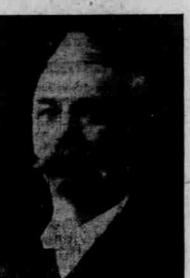

Dr. Stough read a number of requests for prayer and offered prayer before beginning his sermon, which was from the text John iil, 16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only become that who was a conveyed in an admirable discourse.

God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosever belleveth in him should not perish but have everlasting life."

The change of one word in this text, he said, gave the key to his whole thought of the evening. "God so bealieved in the world," touching by the word "believed" even a profounder depth than that of love. It is the one and only hope for you and me and the world that God believes in us, in the soul-possibility of every man and woman, in the ideal and not so much in

The anniversary sermon was preached by Rev. Kustav Doering, kho is commissioner of emigration for the Lutheran church in New York. His text was Ephesians vi. 16, 17, 18; Withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the flery darts of the evil one. And take helmet of salvation and the sword of the spirit which is the word of God; with all prayer and supplication, praying at all seasons in the spirit, and watching thereunto in all perserverance and supplication for all the saints. His sermon was heard with great appreciation. He referred to the fact that Pastor Bausk installed him just twenty years age in Macedon. N. Y. and he was delighted to retay this debt by helping him observe the anniversary.

After the church service refreshments were served in the Sunday school room.
